Meeting Minutes

1. Welcome and Introduction for new attendees
  - Welcomed the people in attendance and started with the presentation right away
2. Patty Dowd – MSD Assistant Superintendent ballot measure presentation
  - Renewal of the educational programs levy and a bond
  - Educational program levies are good for 4 years, short term, smaller dollar amounts, and currently fund 14% of programs and activities not paid for by the state
  - Bonds are for building of schools, replacing infrastructure, and providing financing for a longer period (like a mortgage) and paid within 20 years
  - Proposition – renewal of current educational program levy and a $400M bond to fund major projects, security upgrades, technology infrastructure, facility system improvements, and upgrades to fields, courts, and playgrounds

- Levies must pass with a 50% +1 vote minimum of total votes, and bonds must pass with a 60% minimum of total votes
- Vote by February 10th, 2026

3. School Report – Michelle Fankhauser (AP/ASB)

- Greg is working on bringing the WA State Chess Championships to MHS!
- Dates:
  - i. Feb 27th: 4pm-9pm
  - ii. Feb 28th: 9am-8:30pm
- Opportunity for concessions to be open. Greg will confirm with Boosters.
- Marauder Day with Principal Dr. Pimpleton
  - i. Principal Dr. Pimpleton is asking for feedback from parents and can meet with him

4. Treasurer Report – Jaime Larsen

- Jaime provided treasurer report with balances of clubs through 11/17/25

5. Booster Activities

- Change in roles:
  - i. Treasurer: Melisa R.
  - ii. Jaime L. is now concessions manager
  - iii. Vice President: Laura A.
  - iv. Secretary position is open
- Transitions will be in effect by the end of November.

6. Questions/Comments

- State Chess Championship being held at MHS is still TBD
  - i. Working out details on facility use (custodians)
  - ii. Chess matches are very involved, and players cannot be distracted, which spectators may be asked to step away to avoid making any noises or disruptions
- WIFI hotspot has improved but can be spotty at times
  - i. Reach out to district technology director (Brook Trisler or Sarah Lawrence) to ask about providing guest access to Boosters
  - ii. They may be able to create a WIFI login to use while operating the concessions
